(2) Process boundaries vertically

- From this analysis, distance between columns in original have to match the distance between columns in compare.
- Also, the change of y values in original have to match the y values in compare.